

Data Set Abstract

The paper collects and studies standard quarterly series for output, price, interest rates, and other macroeconomic indicators for the major European countries and the US. It also analyzes structural and financial information, such as the share of manufacturing in GDP, the ratio of bank loans to total liabilities for nonfinancial corporations, and other balance-sheet indicators.